TYPOGRAPHY

USING THE CORPORATE TYPEFACES

Two typefaces have been chosen for use in all of SLA communications. These are Baskerville, a simple, modern yet classic typeface, with a timeless appearance and Praxis, a simple and legible sans serif typeface. It is important to use both, but to ensure that the relationship between them is understood and that they are applied consistently. So, Baskerville should be used as the predominant typeface for headings, and Praxis's excellent legibility is ideal when setting body copy. Please use the suggested weights depending on emphasis that you require.
